THE NICHOLS FAMILY

William Nichols of Springfield, Mass., appears to have been one of the early settlers of Brimfield, Mass., though he evidently died before the distribution of land to the original proprietors, as Lot 8 is apportioned to the "William Nichols heirs" May 23, 1732. The descendents were afterwards large land owners from the Tower Hill Road westward, the dwelling house occupied in 1843 by L. A. Cutler, and supposed to be the oldest in Brimfield, Mass., was built by Cap't. Samuel Nichols about 1754.

Ref. History of Brimfield, Mass., "Hyde 1879".

The name Nichols is spelled several different ways, such as Nicholl, Nickells, Nickoll.

The Widow Sarah Nickells, Administrator to the estate of William Nickells, deceased, for Lot #8 - 80 acres.

The Old Homestead of Cap't. Samuel Nichols

When in 1874, repairs were made on the house in which Cap't. Nichols used to live, then occupied by L. A. Cutler, a letter to Cap't. Nichols was found, written by Jesse Parker, at that time one of the soldiers from Brimfield, stationed at Fishkill.

In the kitchen of Cap't. Nichols house on the wood work over the fire place some Hessians, that lodged there for a time, carved their names. They were stragglers from Burgoyne's army, who preferred to find a home in America, than to be given up to the British. The surrender of Burgoyne's Army took place Oct. 17, 1777, and half of same Hessians, who became prisoners of War.

Sergeant: Luther Nichols, his wife Ellen and daughter Adaline A. were among the oldest settlers of Chicago. They came from Ft. Niagara, N. Y. to Ft. Dearborn on June 20, 1832 with Major Whistler, which was during the Black Hawk War and spent the first three weeks in the old fort.

in 1833 they went to Ft. Mackinac, Mich., and returned to Chicago in the spring of 1834, where they lived in a cabin near the fort at a point where the river runs into the lake. *In August 1835, Sergeant Nichols was elected Constable. For the year of 1840, he was Chief of the Volunteer Fire Dep't., and a Police Cap't. in 1855 under the Mayor Levi D. Boone.

When they came to Chicago in 1832, there were only 100 residents and five or six log houses. In 1840 the population rose to 4853, and by August 1, 1843 it was 8500. In the general Directory Luther Nichols was listed as a drayman, and also was 3rd Vice Pres. of the Washington Temperance Society, which had a membership of 1100.

In 1853 the Nichols family lived at 12, Edina place, (now called Plymouth Court). Luther received a gold medal from the Government for bravery in the Lager Beer riots of the Germans April 21, 1855.

(188) Died April 17, 1898

NICHOLS. In Chicago, on Wednesday morning, 18th inst., Ellnor Vincent, wife of Luther Nichols, late resident of Waukegan, and mother of Mrs. E. L. Flagg and Mrs. W. A. Darling, aged 74 years and six months. This has passed away another of the very first settlers of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols came to Chicago in April, 1832 and have resided there continually ever since, with the exception of about two years' residence in Waukegan. Mrs. Nichols was a kind and affectionate wife and mother, and her heart and hands were always open to acts of kindness and charity to those who were in distress, and no one was ever turned away without aid and comfort. On how she will be missed by those who knew and loved her best, by her children with whom, of late years, she was in the habit of spending most of her time; and the little ones always welcomed grandma with joy and gladness. But her eyes are closed, her hand is still and she has gone to a better world, where sickness and sorrow never come and where the weary are at rest. June 18, 1899

DEATH OF A FORMER RESIDENT.
Mrs. E. A. Nichols Passed to the Great Beyond.

Word reaches this city of the death of Mrs. E. A. Nichols, which occurred Sunday night at Butte, Montana, where the family moved from Waukegan over two years ago.

The news of her death will be a severe blow to the many Waukegan friends of the family, gained during their six or eight years of residence here.

The deceased was a sister-in-law of Mrs. E. L. Flagg. She leaves, besides her husband, five daughters and one son, with whom a large number of warm friends in this city deeply sympathize.

(184) Died Oct. 8, 1899

MRS. ADELINE D. HEART
In the death of Mrs. Adeline D. Heart, whose funeral was held today under the auspices of the Relief Corps, Dr. Henry conducting the services, there passed the oldest living resident of Chicago, and a woman whose life had been filled with interesting experiences and with patriotic and unselfish service from the early pioneer days of the Middle West until the time of her death. She was born at Niagara Falls, N. Y., in 1821, and when she was but a year old her father, Capt. Luther Nichols, moved with his family to old Fort Dearborn, where Chicago now stands. This was before the time of railroads, and the trip was made by water. While at Fort Dearborn Captain Nichols was sent with General Scott to fight in the Black Hawk Indian war, which was finally ended by Captain Nichols with a detachment under Major Winfield. Captain Nichols was given a gold medal by the grateful U. S. government for his bravery in Indian fighting. This medal, dated 1855, was given by Mrs. Heart to her nephew, C. L. Peckham, 245 North Central avenue, with whom she has made her home during the past three years since she came to California. Up until 1914 Mrs. Heart had resided continuously in the city of Chicago since 1832. She was the first graduate of the Chicago schools to receive a teacher's certificate in that city. She later took up the work her father had begun in the earliest days of the town, when he was made "overseer of the poor." Her life was devoted largely to charitable work. Mrs. Heart leaves no relatives closer than nephews and nieces, her only daughter having died in Chicago three years ago. She herself was the oldest child in a family of seven girls and one boy. Mr. Flagg of Sweetland, 170 Rock Glen Avenue, is a niece. Mrs. Heart was made a widow by the Civil War.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 11.—[Special.]—Mrs. Adeline Heertt died here today.

Mrs. Heertt came to Chicago with her parents on June 20, 1832. She was one of the oldest, if not the oldest inhabitant of Chicago. Her father was Sergt. Luther Nichols of the regular army who brought his family along when he came to fight in the Blackhawk war.

The Nichols family lived in Fort Dearborn until the presence of cholera in the camp forced them to live in a lean-to, and later in an abandoned log house outside the stockade.

When her father was mustered out, he went into the teaming business and still later ran a packet on the Illinois and Michigan canal.

Mrs. Heertt lived for many years near Twenty-second street and Prairie avenue.
